. . . Tribute . . .

We desire to place at the beginning of this record of our year a tribute to the memory of Lord Tweedsmuir, late Governor-General of Canada. We do not presume to offer a dedication of our small efforts to the memory of a very great man, but there are few in Canada who did not feel toward this distinguished soldier, statesman and writer a warmth of affection drawn forth by the completeness of his interest in the problems and hopes of this part of the Empire which he served with so deep a devotion. It is out of this affection that the editors of this book and through them the students of the College desire to commemorate Lord Tweedsmuir's noble name. This we do most fittingly in his own words embodying an aspiration, fulfilled by his generous spirit which, as in Wordsworth's Happy Warrior,

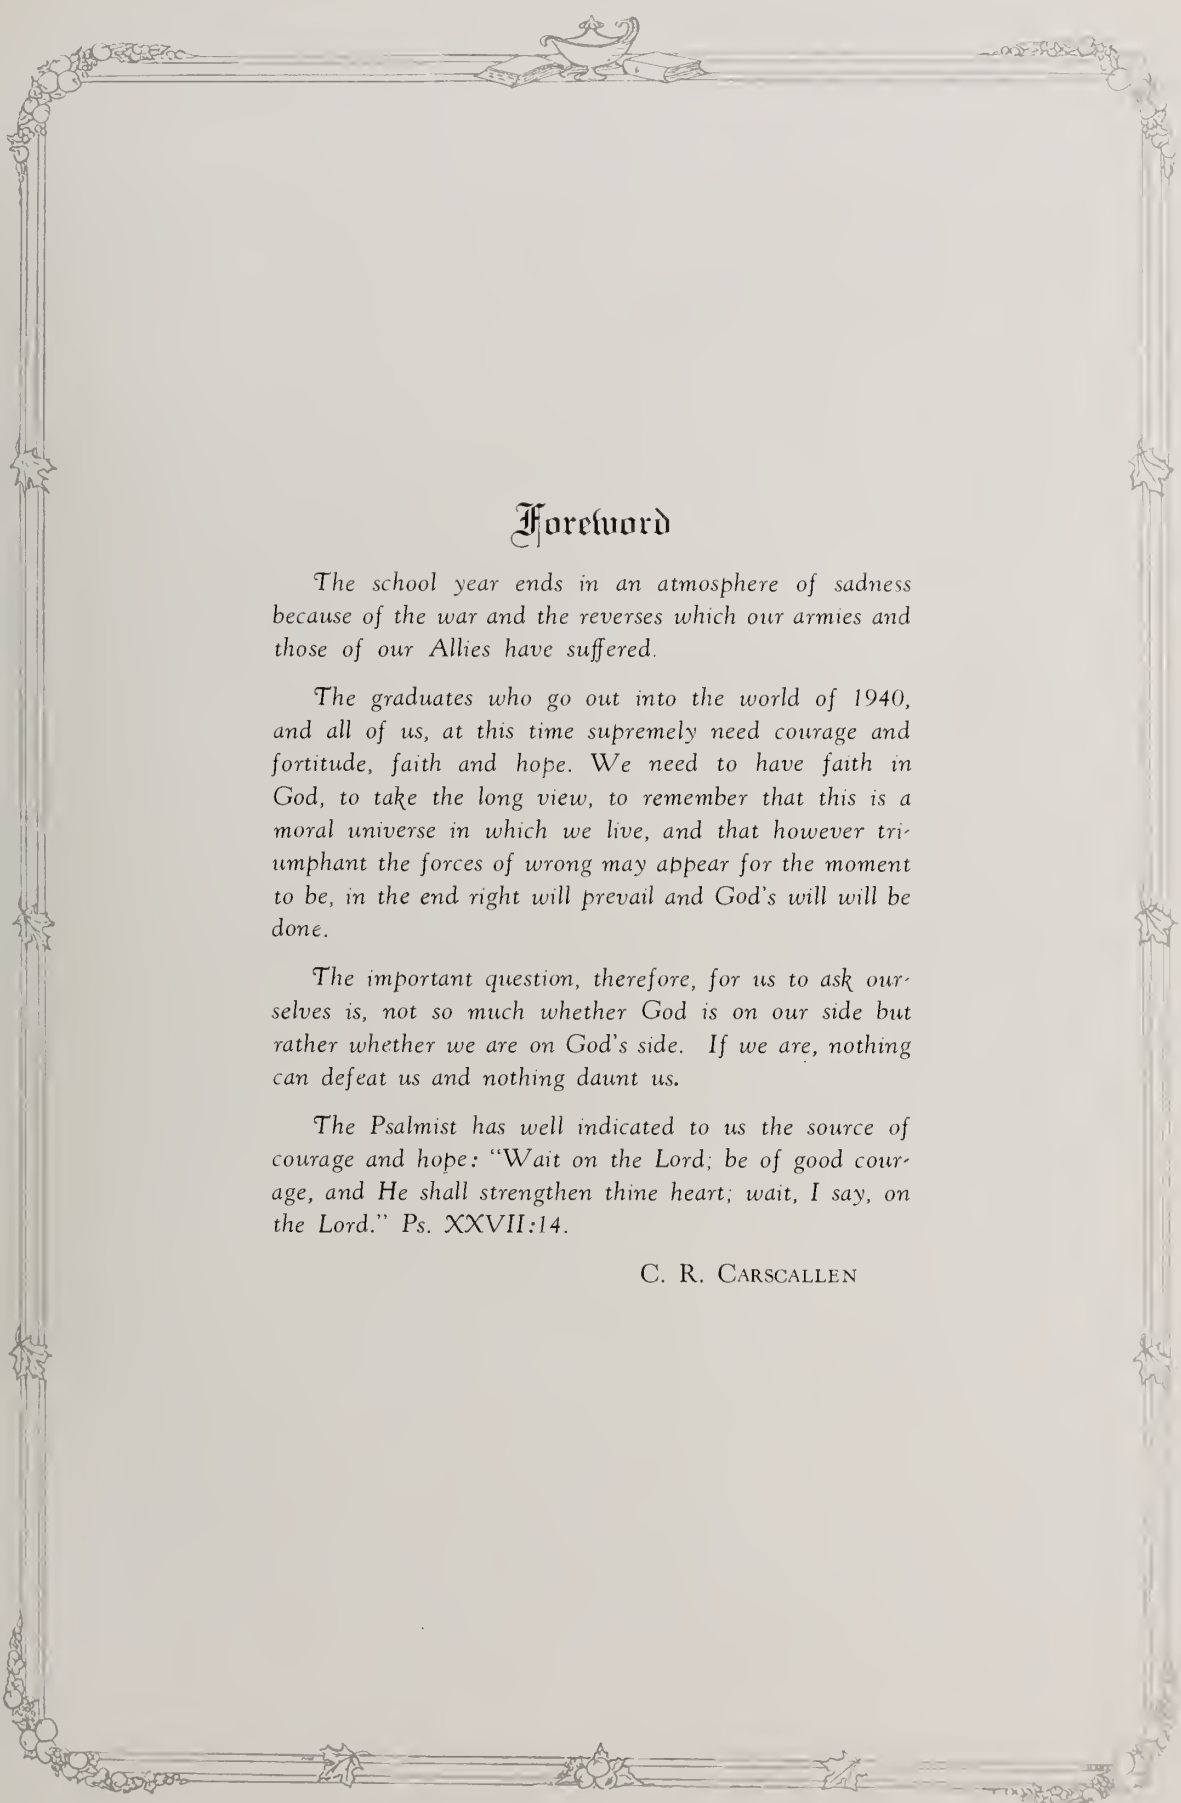

"When brought
Among the tasks of real life hath wrought
Upon the plan that pleased his boyish thought."

"O Thou to whom man's heart is known,
Grant me my morning orison.
Grant me the rover's path—to see
The dawn arise, the daylight flee.
In the far wastes of sand and sun
Grant me with venturous heart to run
On the old highway, where in pain
And ecstasy man strives amain,
Outstrips his fellows, or, too weak,
Finds the great rest that wanderers seek;
Grant me the joy of wind and brine,
The zest of food, the taste of wine,
The fighter's strength, the echoing strife,
The high tumultuous lists of life."

Foreword

The school year ends in an atmosphere of sadness because of the war and the reverses which our armies and those of our Allies have suffered.

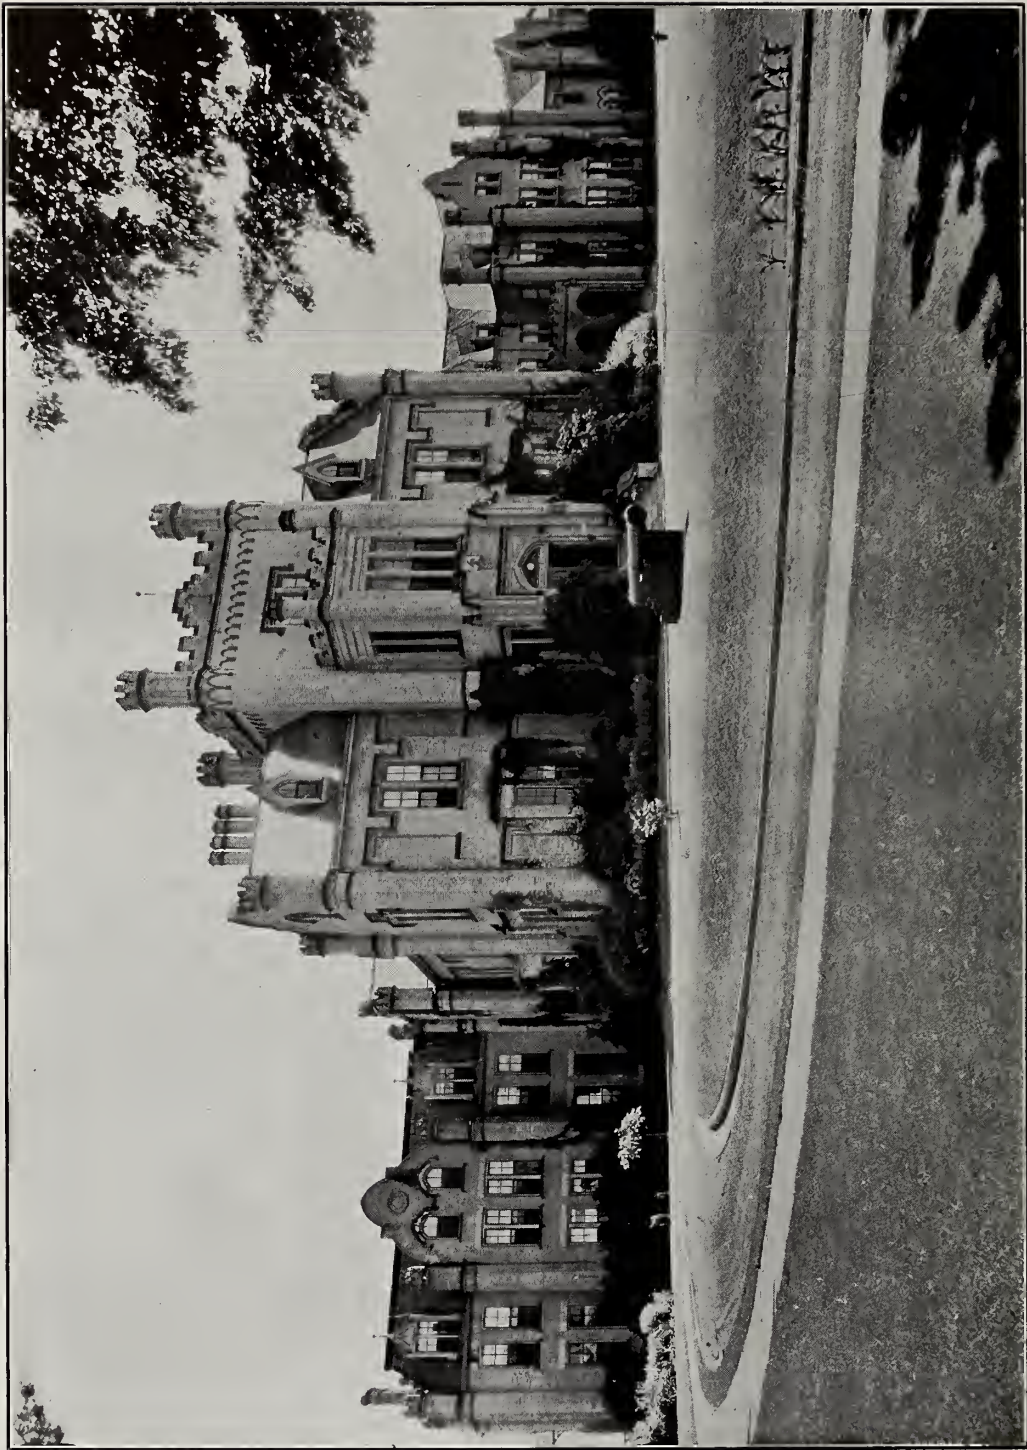

The graduates who go out into the world of 1940, and all of us, at this time supremely need courage and fortitude, faith and hope. We need to have faith in God, to take the long view, to remember that this is a moral universe in which we live, and that however triumphant the forces of wrong may appear for the moment to be, in the end right will prevail and God's will will be done.

The important question, therefore, for us to ask ourselves is, not so much whether God is on our side but rather whether we are on God's side. If we are, nothing can defeat us and nothing daunt us.

The Psalmist has well indicated to us the source of courage and hope: "Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart; wait, I say, on the Lord." Ps. XXVII:14.

College Song

Presented most affectionately by the Graduating Class of '25 to their Alma Mater

---

Dear old Trafalgar
Hear thou our hymn of praise
Hearts full of love we raise
Proudly to thee.
Thy splendour never falls,
Truth dwells within thy walls,
Thy beauty still enthalls,
Dear O. L. C.

Through thee we honour
Truth, virtue, loveliness,
Thy friendships e'er possess
Our constancy.
Thy spirit fills us through
So we'll be ever true
To our dear Blue and Blue
Of O. L. C.

O! Alma Mater!
How can we from thee part?
Thou only hast our heart,
Dearest of schools!
Thy glory we shall see
Wherever we may be,
Still love of O. L. C.
Our future rules.

Senior Song

*Hail Alma Mater,
School of our heart!
Send us forth, and guide us
Through the years,
Though from thee, we must part.
Though our ways be long divided,
Your ideals will still hold sway,
They will remain with us,
From day to day.*

*Honour and loyalty
Friendship and truth,
We shall cherish in the future,
As the standards of our youth.
Give us memories sweet and lasting,
Of the days we spent with you,
Hold high our O. L. C.

GRADUATES, 1940

BEATRICE BULLEN

"She is a comrade blithe and gay."

Bea came laughing into this world at Toronto on June 8, 1920. In 1928 Bea went to Branksome Hall but came in '36 to receive her finishing touches at O.L.C. Bea is one of our better sports girls, Miss Hill's only hope in 5th form speech class, and full of ye good old school spirit.

Bea has been on the Basketball team for several years, besides participating in badminton, tennis, swimming and many other sports. She made as perfect a Junior president last year, as she has made a Senior president this year. To crown her success at O.L.C. Bea was elected one of the May Queen's Councillors this year.

Bea intends to go to Varsity next year but as her ambition is a Hope Chest, who knows? All the luck in the world, Bea, and may you be successful in everything you undertake.

Pastime—Writing a 24-page letter.

Favourite Saying — Oh! Wick, stop it now.

JANET MONTGOMERY-MOORE

*"None know her but to love her,
None name her but to praise her."*

Janet kicked her first booties off on Aug. 28, 1922, on the sunny Island of Bermuda. After passing through the fundamentals of public school and one year at Bermuda High School, she sailed to O.L.C. and into second form, where her good nature and friendly smile won everyone's heart.

For four happy years she returned to Trafalgar Castle to take her place in school life. A conscientious worker in Academics she received her Junior Matric. and this year she graduates with Honour Matric. Active in sports, she is an excellent horse-woman and received her Silver Medallion in swimming.

This spring we chose her for our May Queen, deeming her worthy of the honour, which she so gracefully fulfilled.

Next year she plans to spend in Bermuda. In her years here Janet has made many friends and we all wish her the best of luck in everything.

Pastime—Cutting up—papers and magazines.

Favourite Saying—Heavens!

MARJORIE SNELGROVE

*"A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men."*

Parry Sound added one more to its fold when Marj. was born there on Sept. 22, 1919. It was there she learned her three R's before coming on to O.L.C. for higher learning. Last year Marj. took the Secretarial Course and this year she is graduating in Commercial.

She has put in a busy time having been made Secretary-Treasurer of the Senior Class and recently Business Manager of the Year Book.

Next year she hopes to be someone's hard working (?) secretary. Good luck, Marj.

Pastime—Taking a bath.

Favourite Saying—Oh! I don't know.

MARY LOU ATTRIDGE

"Sometimes the power of my brain scares me."

Mary Lou first beamed upon the beautiful city of Cranbrook, B.C. in the year 1922. It was in this remarkable city that Mary spent most of her childhood days playing in the sawdust piles of the Cranbrook Sash & Door Co.

Mary Lou went through Public School and three years High School in this very town, never once complaining of the half block she had to walk each day. But then! after three years of martyrdom, someone told her of O.L.C. where you didn't have to walk at all to get to classes. Immediately she rushed across the country and arrived, (as usual) four days late, at this famous school.

And now—after two eventful years -- Mary Lou has attained the status of graduate. She will enter the University of Toronto in the fall to study Dietetics.

Good luck, Mary Lou! As long as you don't eat your own food you should be safe.

Pastime—Building up Cranbrook.

Favourite Saying—Now you've hurt my feelings!

ROSALIND BARRON

"As full of spirit as the month of May."

Rosalind greeted Estevan, Sask. on April 25, 1920. While still very young she moved to Brandon, Man., and later to Moose Jaw, Sask. Here she attended the Ross public school and the Central Collegiate Institute. In the fall of '39 the east attracted Ro and she came to O.L.C. to join the Commercial class of which she has been a diligent member. Ro has taken part in many of the athletic activities of the school and this year has obtained her Bronze Medallion.

The past year she has filled the halls with the ring of her merry laughter. We wish Ro every success in the coming years.

Pastime—Reading books.

Favourite Saying—You're a nice kid and I like you a lot—but!!

GRACIA BULLEN

*"She's little, but she's wise,
She's a terror for her size."*

It was in the year 1919 that the fair city of Toronto was made several shades brighter by the arrival of a petite baby girl in the Bullen household. This little girl was none other than our own Billie. Everyone knows that good goods come in small packages and Billie is far from being an exception to the rule.

Billie came to us after receiving her earlier education at Branksome Hall and has been with us for the last four years, delighting us in many ways, especially with her piano, organ, and dramatic recitations.

Billie's plans for next year are undecided, but it is said that her ambition is to play the organ at her own wedding, which will be the main scene of the greatest play ever produced. But whatever she does, and wherever she goes, we wish her all the happiness that is sure to be hers.

Pastime—Dramatics.

Favourite Saying—Diddy, diddy, dimme a tiss.

ELEANOR DICK

"She is just a prairie flower Growing wilder every hour."

About 18 years ago, there appeared in that little town of Canora, Sask., about which we have heard so much, a little girl named Eleanor, with blond, curly hair and a sunny disposition.

Dickie attended the public and high schools of Canora and obtained her Senior Matric. last year. She came to O.L.C. this year, entering the Commercial Department and has made many a laugh for her classmates. She likes sports of all kinds, tennis, in which she excels, being her favourite.

Dickie hopes to enter the business field when she leaves O.L.C. and we wish her all the success in the world.

Pastime—Playing tennis.

Favourite Saying—I'm not going to write that exam to-morrow, kids!

VALERIE FAREWELL

"Fond of beauty, life and laughter, Business first and pleasure after."

Val. laughed her way into this sunny world one May morning midst all the beauties and splendour of O.L.C. For five years she made pleasant lives miserable by pestering the girls night and day—but what could the girls say since she was the principal's daughter?

Val. then left the glories of O.L.C. for the small town life of Port Credit and there she obtained her elementary education. Four years ago the call of O.L.C. brought Val. back to her old home—this time as a student.

This year she efficiently filled the position of Vice-Pres. of the Honour Club and is also Editor-in-chief of the Year Book. Along with her academic work she has revealed her talents in piano and vocal. As a further honour Val. was made Valedictorian this year.

Her steps are turned toward Toronto University where we wish her every success.

Pastime—Trying to keep her room-mates on the straight and narrow path.

Favourite Saying—Was I mortified!!

GRACE FAWCETT

"Not much talk—a great sweet silence."

Grace was born in Whitby, Ont., seventeen years ago on July 29, although she lived in Rennie, Man. for sixteen and a half years. She attended public school in Rennie and received her high school education in Whitemouth, Man., where she obtained her Junior Matric.

This year she was very undecided but finally thought O.L.C. the perfect place. Grace is taking Commercial and will graduate with flying colours. She won Sprott's Writing Award which is a great honour and hopes to become "the perfect secretary." In this we wish her all the luck in the world.

Pastime—Getting 100 in every subject.

Favourite Saying—Gee, Heck!

AUDREY HODGKINSON

"She has her own ideas of what's what."

Audrey first saw the light of day at Port Arthur on Oct. 9, 1920. After completing her High School education there, she decided that O.L.C. was the place for her, so she came to take a Commercial Course.

She is very fond of all sports and has shown a great deal of enthusiasm in them while here, especially tennis, badminton, basketball and in addition to these Hodgie is a camera fiend. Hodgie won the Tennis Singles, as well as the Doubles.

Next year we believe that she intends to be a secretary. We know that she will be a big help to some "struggling firm." May you have every success in the future, Hodgie!

Pastime—Collecting Souvenirs.

Favourite Saying—Gee, I am so happy

BETTY HUNGERFORD

"A wise and understanding heart."

Betty made her debut to society at Lumina, on Dec. 30, 1922. Her mother was her loving teacher until she entered the little yellow school house on top of the hill in 1929. In '37 she came to dear old Trafalgar to continue her studies and will no doubt obtain her Senior Matric. this year with flying colours.

She has proved to be an able horsewoman, besides taking part in archery, swimming, etc.

Betty, as Honour Club President, has successfully filled the position and this year was elected holder of the Strathcona Shield, which is indeed a great honour.

She intends to "Camp" at Varsity next year and we all wish her the best of luck in whatever course she attempts.

Pastime—Writing in her diary.

Favourite Saying—Oh! fluff!

RUTH KEENE

"Good sport in all good things."

Ruth first laughed her way into this world in Sept. 1921 at London, Ont. Having obtained her earlier education at the Tecumseh Public School, she attended the London C.I. for a few years and in the fall of '39 came on to O.L.C. to complete her Senior Matric. and take a course in Art, in which she has done some very fine work. As Ruth is enthusiastic in all kinds of sports—swimming, tennis, riding, badminton and archery, excelling in archery, she has fulfilled her duties as Vice-Pres. of the Athletic Club. In the Badminton Tournament, Ruth won the Singles.

She made a great job of impersonating a French saleswoman in the Senior Play. Her plans for the next year as yet are indefinite but whatever she decides to do, here's to her success.

Pastime — Drawing cartoons in Study Hall.

Favourite Saying—So help me!!

SHEILA MCKENZIE

"She has her own ideas on what's what."

Sunny was the day in the year 1921 when Sheila became a permanent member of the McKenzie family of Toronto. Never would there be a dull moment while Sheila was on hand with her sweet smile and delightfully curly hair.

Sheila attended St. Clements school before she came to O.L.C. in 1937 and this year she is expected to graduate with high honours especially in vocal and piano.

When she receives her A.T.C.M. she may proceed with her music and yet, on the other hand, rumour has it that she would like to be a spy. However, whatever she may attempt, we feel certain that she will succeed in it and with her go very best wishes from everyone at O.L.C.

Pastime—Peters.

Favourite Saying—Simply perfect, my dear, simply perfect.

ANNABEL MCKAY

"A sunny disposition is the very soul of success."

Annabel happened along in Orono, Ont., one fine Hallowe'en night, 1918. After obtaining her early education in Orono and Colbourne she attended Albert College, Belleville for two years. In the fall of '38, she came to O.L.C. as a member of the Household Science Department and is graduating in Dietetics. Ann has not neglected to take part in various athletic activities of the school and is a real enthusiast in riding, swimming and skating.

At the close of school she is planning to enter Wellesley Hospital as a student Dietitian. We know she will be successful, and wish her the best of luck and happiness.

Pastime—Going home for week-ends.

Favourite Saying—Can anyone sell me a chocolate bar?

MARJORIE McRAE

*"Steadfast is her friendship.
Her word as true as steel."*

Marj. arrived in the little town of Barrie's Bay on June 25, 1922, and has carried with her ever since the sunny atmosphere of that bright day.

Not more than three years later we find Marj. in Eganville. Here she attended public school, but at ten she moved to Whitney.

In the fall of '38 Marj. packed her bags and set out for O.L.C., registering as a Junior. She returned this year to obtain her Honour Matric.

Although her plans for the future are as yet undecided, whatever they be we wish her the best of luck.

Pastime—Exercising her feet after lights out.

Favourite Saying—That's right!

ELEANOR QUANCE

*"She has wit and song and sense
Mirth and sport and eloquence."*

One fine summer's day, almost twenty years ago, a tiny, winsome baby girl who possessed the gift of song was born in the town of Delhi, Ont.

Quancy attended the public school of Delhi and obtained the major part of her Senior Matric. at the High School in Simcoe, Ont. The fall of '39 found her at O.L.C., concentrating on Music and Dramatics.

She proved her capability by filling the position of Vice-Pres. of the S.C.M. successfully. Chosen as a Councillor to the May Queen, she was most gracious and sweet.

Next year Quancy plans to attend Normal School in Toronto, where she will specialize in Kindergarten work. We wish her every success.

Pastime—Getting permission to go to Toronto.

Favourite Saying—"Aha!" she cried, "as she winked her wooden eyelash."

JANE CAROL RENWICK

"Music hath charm, but the musician hath more."

Jane Carol Renwick, familiarly known as "J.C.," first heard music, the sighs of adoring parents, at Stratford on March 3, 1922. She attended public school in Wellesley, high school in Palmerston, and finally came to O.L.C. to complete her matric and to study music.

J.C. was on both the basketball and archery teams. Her acting ability was shown to us when she played "Flossie" in the Senior play.

However, J.C.'s chief interest lies in music. She hopes to get her A.T.C.M. in both voice and piano. Whatever she does, we know she'll succeed for "Her eyes and manner bespeak ambition."

Pastime—Participating in sports.

Favourite Saying—Oh! hat!

KATHRYN SIEGNER

"The noblest mind, the best contentment has."

Kay first smiled upon the world on May 30, 1922, in Kitchener, Ont. In her early years Kay attended several Public Schools in her native city, and later was a co-ed of the Kitchener Collegiate Institute.

She came to O.L.C. this year bringing with her great ability, part of her Senior Matric and lots of fun.

We shall miss Kay next year and we sincerely hope that she will often look forward with eager anticipation to her "Home Comings." Good luck in everything you undertake, Kay.

Pastime—Pestering Ro when she is reading.

Favourite Saying—It's a riot kids, Honest!

ETHEL WEBER

*"Not too quiet, not too gay,
But a real good sport in her own quiet way."*

Ethel was born on Feb. 2, 1921, in the fair city of Kitchener. There she graduated from Suddaby Public School and Kitchener-Waterloo Collegiate.

In the fall of '39, she decided to enter O.L.C.'s ranks as a commercial student.

Ethel is interested in sports, especially swimming in which she excels as a "life saver."

Ethel's plans are rather uncertain, but we expect she will step into the big business world and show them just how book-keeping should be done. Here's hoping for her the very best of luck and happiness.

Pastime—Doing Shorthand.

Favourite Saying—Never mind, little girl.

The Senior Dance

At last the night (which some of us had been looking forward to for four years) arrived. The Seniors, most of whom a short time before had been liberally bespeckled with paint, having gotten almost as much on themselves as on the murals, but now all looking their best, led their partners to the gym, which had been completely transformed for the occasion. We found ourselves standing on the verandah of a Venetian palace, overlooking the canals on which gondolas were floating in the moonlight. We owed this to Ruth Keene, who designed and, for the most part, painted the murals. The four-piece orchestra did nobly until the arrival of reinforcements a short time afterwards but everyone enjoyed the music anyway. Too soon the hour of departure came and we seniors all hobbled off to bed, dreading 7.30 when we had to rise and put our noses to the grindstone on account of approaching exams!

The Senior Dinner

Everyone had worked hard all week but the Seniors, with the exception, of course, of those who had speeches to struggle through. The event was the Senior Dinner on the night of April fifth. As the graduating class entered the dining room, they were pleasantly surprised (for not one of us knew a thing about it) to see the most attractive and original decorations on the Senior table. The placecards depicted the Juniors' conception of what the ultimate fate of each Senior would be, and how true some of them were! The flowers and tapers were yellow, green, and mauve, the Class colours. In front of each place was a coffee spoon, the traditional gift of the Juniors to the Seniors. After a sumptuous repast, thanks to Miss Crosthwaite and her staff, Dr. Carscallen, the toastmaster, rose and proposed a toast to the King. This was followed by toasts to Our Country, Alma Mater, the Faculty, the Senior Class, the Other Classes, Student Organizations and the College Press.

The Senior Stunt

The Senior Class production this year was called "The French Maid and the Phonograph" with Mary-Lou playing the title role (the French Maid!) She was supported by Billie who was just another of those pesky kid-sisters who are the bane of their elders' existence, in this case J. C. Renwick and Quancy. Who will ever forget Keene as Madame Renard? or Dickie with her chafing dish? and did we think Janet could look so studious! and Sheila so much like a "real Parisian?" Although time for practicing was scarce, everyone rose to the occasion and "ad libbed" where their memories failed them, and so made the play a "howling" success (even if we do say it ourselves!)

The Alumnae Tea

The Castle Chapter entertained the Senior Class at their annual tea at the home of Mrs. Leo Gray, Simcoe Street, Oshawa, on May 27. We met our friends of the Alumnae in the garden and chatted with them until tea was served. We wish to thank these ladies for being so kind as to entertain us.

Baccalaureate Service

This service is one of the most impressive ceremonies of Commencement Week. This year on Sunday evening, June ninth, the Senior Class in caps and gowns, followed the rest of the school into the United Church, which was beautifully decorated with white ribbon and lilacs. The Junior President, Betty Hazelton, cut the ribbons to allow the Seniors to enter the pews. Rev. Willard E. Brewing, B.D., D.D., brought us a message that was inspiring to every Senior, as well as the other members of the School. On returning to the College the traditional hymn, "Saviour, Again to Thy Dear Name We Raise" was sung as the Graduating Class proceeded up Main Hall. At the conclusion of this a reception was held in the Common Room where the Seniors and their guests met Dr. and Mrs. Brewing.

Senior Breakfast Party

The day finally dawned, not very brightly because it was raining, but not enough to dampen our ardour, even if it did dampen our clothes a little. At seven-thirty all the Seniors, ready for anything, met at the side door and proceeded to the back lane. Due to the rain the fire was unwilling to go, but under Keene's guiding hand was soon blazing merrily, whereupon everybody armed with a long stick, pieces of bread and bacon attended to the needs of their "inner man." We almost had hamburgers too, as the cows came sauntering past, but Billie and Quancy were as scared of them as they were of us, so discouraged any designs we might have had. Bea Bullen presented Miss Taylor with "The Flowering Earth" (a book) on behalf of the Class, then we set out for home in high spirits.

Class Day Exercises

This was a busy day for the Juniors as well as the Seniors. In the morning, the former made the daisy chain (with some real daisies in it!) At noon the Seniors were entertained at lunch in the household science room, by the Juniors, which we all enjoyed very much. In the afternoon at three o'clock, the traditional daisy chain ceremony took place in the Concert Hall. The Seniors entered with the Chain on their shoulders, and as each girl's biography was read, she took her place on the stage. This was followed by the presentation of the Senior pins, the Class Prophecy, and the Valedictory.

In the evening the traditional bonfire was held into which each Senior threw the subject which had been her pet aversion during the year. This was followed by the presentation of two plays: "Winsome Winnie," a melodrama, in which everyone hissed at the villain, cheered the hero, etc., and "The Singing Soul," a Chinese tragedy. Both these productions were under the able direction of Miss Hill and were excellently presented by the casts.

Senior Class Prophecy

Billy Bullen, the now famous movie actress from Hollywood, and I were strolling along Yonge Street the other day when we saw Jane Carol Renwick. J.C. has gone in for organ very seriously lately and is now playing a hurdy-gurdy in front of Simpson's. She says that business is good. Bea Bullen came by while we were there. She was assisting her husband who was demonstrating the new crutches Bea invented. Bea was in a hurry as Annabelle McKay was in her charge and was in dire straits after trying a new diet. There was a large sign posted in one of Simpson's windows announcing the heavyweight boxing championship fight between Ruth Keene and Grace Fawcett who takes down her own newspaper interviews between rounds. We were amazed to see Ro Barron coming down the street on her Moose Jaw cayuse with her typewriter banging along behind. Kay Siegner came by on her way to the station. She was leaving for Ottawa as the Whitby M.P. Kay started to argue with us but just then Val Farewell, now a history professor at Varsity, going down the street with her nose in a book, noticed us and was bound to get into the argument. She decided Kay should take a few courses in History from her, so as to know what she was talking about. We left them to argue as Janet Moore came stumbling over her accent, looking for another white collar job and private office as the Bank in Bermuda had closed. Janet said Marj. Snelgrove had been in Bermuda on her way to England with her husband, Lord Worthnothin. His Lordship met Marj. in the Hot Tootsies Club where Marj. was the chief "hotcha" number. We couldn't stand J.C.'s playing any longer so throwing in a dime, we said good-bye and moved on. But just before we left she told us that Sheila Mackenzie was married to a French count and was supporting the family with her winning ways in Opera. Marj. McRae went whizzing by driving a truck and trailer piled high with logs, and told us that high boots, breeches, plaid shirts and green tuques are tops in Whitney fashions.

Just as we were going into the parking lot for our car, we noticed a young man with a beaming face sitting in a baby Austin. As we passed him, who should come up but Eleanor Quance laden with tiny parcels. She spoke excitedly and opened one parcel, proudly displaying a pair of baby booties.

Billy bought a paper and there was Audrey Hodgkinson's name in headlines. It seems that in between typing strokes she put in a few tennis strokes and is champ at Wimbledon. In the same paper, was a big writeup of Ethel Weber's wedding. It certainly pays to take Commercial!

Then we drove out to Billy's place, and there was Eleanor Dick still trying to get a job.

After saying good-bye to Bill and Dicky, I went to the station, and there were Betty Hungerford and her husband boarding the train to start their little gray home in the West, while I went back to Cranbrook to resume my lectures on "How to Lose Ten Pounds in Ten Days."

Valedictory

In closing a recent address to the undergraduates of Oxford University, about to go into uniform, Lord Halifax said: "In front of the Viceroy's House in New Delhi stands a column, on which are inscribed the words:—

"In Thought Faith
In Word Wisdom
In Deed Courage
In Life Service
So May India Be Great."

"No one of us" said Lord Halifax, "could offer for our country or our Commonwealth any better prayer today." To us, the members of the Senior Class, who are leaving our Alma Mater, these words are an epitome of her constant teaching. It is a heartening thing that the Commonwealth of Nations, of which we are a part, offers us, through the speech of a great public servant, the same counsel, and that we go out to meet the same high purposes inspiring, for the most part, those peoples that constitute the Empire.

But wider than the Empire is humanity. It is our belief that this prayer is not for India, merely, or for the Empire, but is the hope of humanity itself and the individuals who comprise it. Forever, the world turns to its youth, both for the maintenance of an idea or for its adoption and development, and we may perhaps be forgiven if we feel that at this moment, as at every crisis in human affairs in time and place, our hopes and our resolves are of first importance. We do not imagine for a moment that this noble inscription is completely novel in its spirit and intent, but we do see the maintenance of this idea threatened in the world about us, even definitely repudiated and derided in the training of the young by those nations in which force and domination are held up as the worthiest purpose to be sought.

It is therefore our obligation to embrace the ideal embodied in this inscription with deeper fervor and devotion, and in saying farewell to our College, to determine in humility and faith that in this spirit we will live, and in this spirit we will work for a world wiser, freer, and more liberal.

Medium Class

Miss Rickard once again took the helm for the Mediums and steered them through a successful and happy year. We wish to thank her for her helpful direction of the Medium stunt. Her clever adaptation of the Romans was a treat to all and her aid in our preparations for the Senior dinner was greatly appreciated. Her happy Mediums were as follows:

BETTY MACKINTOSH—Our able and reliable president, who comes from Nova Scotia, is an excellent horsewoman and won a prize for proficiency in this as well as receiving her Bronze Medallion in swimming.

JOAN MORRIS—Our worthy vice-president, a day student from Oshawa, who showed her very great adeptness in academic work by receiving awards for highest standing in Jr. Matric., English and Canadian History. Also won the Jr. Public Speaking Contest.

HILDA PIERSON—Our Secretary-Treasurer, from Peterborough, who showed us how a treasury should be looked after.

PATRICIA GERVAN—A little brain-wave, whose excellent marks won her the silver medal for the highest standing in our form. "Patty" also received the prize for the best Jr. reading list.

MARION BUELL—who took an active interest in all school activities as well as her studies and received her Bronze Medallion. Marion hails from Kingston.

GWEN EILER—Came from Sudbury and brought with her wit and good will. She showed her ability in sports and specialized in swimming.

FRANCES GROBB—Is a day student from Whitby, who honored our class with her presence. Frances took a keen interest in all the school activities, especially riding.

JEAN MARSHALL—Another day student from Whitby, coming to us from British Guiana and very popular with the members of our class.

MURIEL MESSINGER—A lively young Torontonion whose interests are too many to list and whose excellent swimming and diving won her the prize for second highest proficiency in swimming.

Lower School

CLASS TEACHER	-	-	-	MISS ADAMS
PRESIDENT	-	-	-	HELEN MITCHELL
VICE-PRESIDENT	-	-	-	MARY YELLAND
SECRETARY-TREASURER	-	-	-	ZERLINE VOGL

Lower School consists of the Elementaries, First and Second Forms, and although they are the last class in the school, they are by no means the least. Most of the members live on Ryerson, and many are the skirmishes after lights out. The Stunt was presented with the Mediums this year and thoroughly enjoyed by the whole school. Could they have some contortionists in their midst?

Despite the fact that they have less responsibility than the other classes, we always find them working along, willing to help everybody, and full of ye old school spirit.

May Day

We are told that only twice in twenty-five years it has rained on this festive occasion but this year happened to be the third time, and in spite of the ardent wishes and even prayers of the whole school, the Coronation of the May Queen had to be held in the gym. However, so charming was our Queen, Janet Montgomery-Moore, and so graciously did she and her councillors, Beatrice Bullen and Eleanor Quance, approve the exercises performed in their honour, although in some cases under great difficulty, that we count it one of the most successful May Days on record even though the riding meet had to be cancelled on account of rain.

Preceding this ceremony the traditional program was held in the Concert Hall at which Mrs. R. J. Marshall was the guest speaker.

Also due to the rain, our picnic had to be postponed again this year, and everybody spent the afternoon in her own chosen way and many listened to the King as he delivered his inspiring message to his Empire.

In the evening most of us departed for the movies either in Oshawa or Whitby, and so wound up the highly enjoyable day in fine fettle.

Strathcona Shield

This is the second of the two great honours that the students of the College confer on one of their fellow members who possesses all of the three virtues: Womanliness, Athletic Ability and Academic Ability. This shield is made of copper taken from Nelson's flagship, the "Victory," and Betty Hungerford was elected warden for 1940-41. After the election Betty was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Janet Montgomery-Moore, our May Queen, on behalf of the School. This was followed by a reception in the Common Room at which Betty received the members of the Faculty, Staff and student body.

School Notes

The Hallowe'en Programme

On October twenty-seventh we had our Hallowe'en Masquerade. Fittingly enough the halls and dining hall were clad in their gloomiest, grayest, goriest, indeed most gruesome decorations with skeletons, black cats, and weird faces lurking about in all corners.

After a delicious dinner in candle-light, we assembled in the Concert Hall, for the Grand March of the school in fancy dress.

Mr. J. C. Anderson, Oshawa, was the chairman and the judges were Mrs. F. J. McIntyre, Miss Clara Powell, Dr. F. S. Mills.

While we awaited the judges' decision we were entertained by songs and a play called "A Nephew in the House."

The results of the contest were:

Most beautiful costume: Allison Vanstone—A Spanish Lady.

Most original group: Monica McMullen, Joan Morris, Mary Yelland, Rosalie Holling—Wizard of Oz.

Most comical costume: Mary Riddell—A Witch.

Most comical group: Mary Lou Attridge, Marjorie Snelgrove, Kay McGill, Betty Hazelton—Caterpillar.

Christmas Pageant

The Christmas pageant of 1939 proved to be one of the most impressive ceremonies of the year. The candle-lighters' procession began the festivities to the tune of the Cherry Tree Carol and in traditional fashion the Boar's Head Procession followed with the Boar's Head Carol. Dances and familiar old Carols were cleverly arranged between courses of a delicious dinner and everyone joined in the Yuletide Spirit.

The dances and songs presented by Middle School and the Elementaries directed by Miss A. Adams and Miss R. Lohead added colour and gaiety to the scheme. "Good King Wenceslas," pictorially illustrated by some and a short skit given by others who gaily represented "Old King Cole," were enjoyed by all.

The guests departed singing "Silent Night" and the hall was made ready for the dramatic play "The Christmas Carol" which was ably directed by Miss E. Hill and presented by the dramatic Students.

After a delightful and highly entertaining performance, the Pageant was brought to a close.

Friday Night Concerts

This year everyone looked forward to the Friday night concerts and lectures which came as a climax to each school week, and were greatly enjoyed by all. We were glad to see the Cameo Trio back at the first of the year, and we welcomed old friends back on two other occasions, namely Gordon Hallett and Clifford Poole, piano team, and Mrs. Donnellan and Billy. Some of the students had the opportunity of meeting these artists afterwards and found them as attractive as their performances. Three one-act plays presented by the York Players provided an evening of fine entertainment. Mrs. Violet Leach lectured on South Africa, Miss E. M. B. Warren on Scandinavia, and Miss Frances Loring on Canadian Sculpturing, and each won the full appreciation of the students. It was indeed a privilege to have the opportunity of hearing so many talented musicians and lecturers during the year and we express our thanks to Dr. Carscallen for making these entertainments possible.

Junior Recital

On Friday, June the seventh, the Junior students gave their music recital. The school dressed in formal attire to honour the Juniors who in turn doubly repaid an attentive audience with an enjoyable and varied program. Those who took part were—Betty Ann Tolman, Anne DesRoches, Jane McIntyre, Arleigh DesRoches, Eva Skutezky, Sheila MacKenzie, Elinore Earle, Frances Grobb, Barbara Griffin, Jane Carol Renwick, Marion Buell, and Helen Yates.

Senior Recital

Amidst the thunder and lightning of the night of June the seventh the Senior music and drama students made themselves heard and conducted their annual recital—and with even more enthusiasm when the lights were cut off during the program. Organ selections were offered by Gracia Bullen and Helen Quinn. Songs by Elinor Quance, J. C. Renwick, Margaret Houston, Ruth James and Sheila MacKenzie were warmly received as well as the piano presentations by Ollie Koleff, Valerie Farewell, Monica McMullen, Margaret Houston and Miss MacKenzie. Monologues from the dramatic department by Gracia Bullen and Kathleen Glynn completed the program. After the School Song, the guests assembled in the Common Room to view the fashion show given by the Household Science department—and last but not least to devour the sandwiches made for the occasion and sip the cool punch on into the night.

Parkwood

Again this year, Mrs. R. S. McLaughlin extended her kind invitation to the entire school to visit her beautiful home in Oshawa, to see the exhibition of lovely chrysanthemums as well as many other varieties of flowers. Tea was served in the dining-room, and on this occasion we all found our hostess to be as charming as ever.

Timothy Eaton Memorial Church

One addition to the privileges which we all enjoyed during this year, was our visit to Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, where we took part in the Sunday evening service on May 12. Rev. David A. MacLennan took as the theme of his sermon "Women in a Man's World" which was enjoyed by all who had the opportunity of hearing it. We are certainly indebted to the members of this Church for inviting us to share their service with them.

Faculty Notes

Here we should like to say how much we have enjoyed having Miss Hill, Miss Adams and Miss Ross with us this, their first year at the College. At the same time everybody in the school is very sorry that Miss Scythes is leaving us after three years in our midst, and we extend to her our very best wishes for her success and happiness, and to Miss Eckersley, as she leaves us to enter the bonds of matrimony.

Alumnae Day

A large and happy group of Alumnae met for luncheon on this occasion. Toasts to the King, Alma Mater, and the Graduating Class were drunk with loyal fervor. The guest speaker was Mrs. Althouse, who delivered an interesting address on woman's place in this torn world. After the occasion we raced upstairs to make ready for the picnic we had waited for so long. The buses took us to the favourite haunt of Lynde's Flats, where everyone scattered hither and yon—some to take pictures, some to play base ball, some to hike, and the more daring to go for a—wade shall we say?

Upon returning to the college we dressed for a recital given by the Spergel Trio. Everyone was both charmed and delighted to see Bobbie Spergel, who has been a friend of the college since he began his early study of music. And so we ended a happy day and one we may remember for a long time to come.

Household Science Department

In September it was only a few enthusiastic members who found their way to this "Course of All Courses" but as the months went by, more and more came to swell the ranks of our merry group.

Pre-warned is pre-armed, and as Miss Eckersley warned us that we had three large undertakings for the year we were prepared to serve the thousands, yea millions who stormed the S.C.M. Bazaar, Parents' Reception and Senior Recital during the year. The girls of the cooking class will not soon forget the fun and good times which accompanied these tasks. The memories of disappearing olives and delicious cheese spreads and deflated doughnuts will linger long in our hearts.

The sewing class wound up a successful year after the Senior Recital when we displayed our work to the guests in the Common Room.

The only graduate in our course this year is attending Wellesley Hospital, but next year we look forward to a larger senior class.

Art Department

The Art Department, under Miss Betty Jaques' able direction, held its colours high this year. The work was varied and of great interest to those of us who did not actually take classes as well as those who did.

The decorations, fitting for every occasion, could never have been possible without this branch of the school and we are greatly indebted to them for their co-operation during the past year.

Grotesque figures in Main Hall and still more gruesome faces in the dining room dated Hallowe'en night at O.L.C. for years to come.

At Christmas, Ruth Keene designed a triptych of the Virgin Mary, Christ Child, and St. Joseph on Main Stairs, which together with other figures constructed by the Art Class, added much to the Christmas spirit.

In February the school had an exhibition of English contemporary lithographs from the Art Gallery at Toronto. This was made possible by Miss Jaques and when hung in the dining hall and class rooms was much enjoyed by the students. A collection of English contemporary wood cuts from the Toronto Art Gallery were also viewed with praise.

The school was invited to the Art Gallery in Toronto. Many took advantage of this fine opportunity and enjoyed the discussion on Modern Art by Cavin Atkins, O.S.A., after which the exhibition was viewed and tea served in the Grange House.

To wind up a highly successful year we had the pleasure of hearing Miss Frances Loring, noted Canadian sculptor, lecture on Modern Sculpturing. As this was a new subject for most of us, it proved to be very interesting and highly informing to all.

Commercial Class

This year of 1939-40 was a success for the Commercial Class in every way. Our main objective, of course, was to hold high the standard of our dear O.L.C. both in good sportsmanship and examination results. We had difficulties, as anticipated, but June brought many honour standings, much to Miss Kitchen's pleasure as well as our own.

One of the big events of the year was our Christmas Party. After the games in the gymnasium, chicken sandwiches, coffee, and other delicacies were enjoyed by twenty-five of us before the welcoming fire-place in the teachers' sitting-room upstairs. Again we were glad we had joined the Commercial department of the School and none other.

Our next gala occasion was the Commercial Sleigh Ride, on which we encountered icy winds, and more snow, but coffee, hot dogs, etc., before the fire-place warmed our spirits for another day.

We had eight seniors, as last year, whose efforts kept our usual high standard in winning prizes and cups both in class work and sports including first in both Tennis Singles and Doubles. We hope that next year and every year to come will be as profitable for the Commercials as this one has been for us.

Student Christian Movement

Advisory Teacher	-	-	MISS KITCHEN

Vice-President	-	-	ELEANOR QUANCE
Secretary-Treasurer	-	-	BARBARA STOKES

This has been a very successful year for the S.C.M., and we wish to thank the student body for their willing co-operation in all our undertakings.

Our first and most important enterprise was the annual bazaar which was a great success. This time instead of decorating booths with crepe paper, we used pine boughs coated with aluminum paint, and hung a street sign from each booth. We had both a Chinese and Japanese booth this year. Taka Matsuda, a former Japanese student, very kindly sent a donation of purses, which we appreciated very much. During the Christmas season the Choir and the Executive paid their annual visit to the County Home and endeavoured to add to the Yuletide spirit there by singing some of the favourite well-known Carols. Everybody enjoyed the various speakers at Sunday night Chapel and found inspiration in some part of each one's message. These services, especially the Communion Service June 2, we shall always treasure as among our most pleasant memories of O.L.C.

Due to gratifying offerings, we are able to make our usual contributions this year—a cot in the hospital in Chengtu, Star Santa Claus and Fresh Air Fund, the Grenfell Mission, Bolton Camp, the Sailors' Inland Mission, and many others.

"He conquers who conquers himself"

This Club is founded on "honour, self-control, goodwill and community responsibility." It has been an institution in the College since 1918.

Through it the students learn the appreciation of democracy and self-government, two elements which are very important in the training of youth to-day.

It is our hope that every girl who is a member of this club will take with her when she leaves some of the ideals set before her when she pledges her loyalty to our Code of Honour.

Athletic Association

*I fell for a sports girl,
She raced, golfed and swam,
I still like the lady
For her husband I am.*

Our sports girls of O.L.C. not only race, golf, and swim, they play lacrosse, practice archery, jump, play basketball and badminton, ski, skate, do apparatus work, play tennis and ride.

First of all let's take lacrosse. Lacrosse is a pretty rough game but we aren't nearly as savage at it as we are at some others. It was rather difficult at first but once the groundwork was mastered, it was a great game.

The archery score this year was ahead of last year's which shows that we are improving. But it seems that all the other schools are doing likewise so we came fifth in the telegraphic archery tournament. A former Canadian Archery champion, Mr. Offer, very kindly came to give our archers a few helpful hints before the tournament.

Field day this year was very late, so it was rather cold for running and jumping. However, it was a great success, due to the many enthusiastic participants.

There wasn't much time for basketball but we did work hard even if the first team did lose both games, i.e. O.L.C. vs. Hatfield Hall and O.L.C. vs. St. Joseph's.

First Team—Forwards: Ruth Keene, Joan Campbell, Val Farewell. Guards: Helen Yates, Rosalie Holling, Ruth McCulloch.

We were very proud of our second team when they won their one and only game against St. Joseph's.

Second Team—Forwards: Bea Bullen, J. C. Renwick, Audrey Hodgkinson. Guards: Betty McIntosh, Kay McGill, Mary Yelland.

The Badminton Tournament was very exciting, especially the final games. This game was taken up with great enthusiasm and it seems that there are quite a number of talented badminton players in our school.

Skiing and skating were our most important winter sports this year. Our two visits to the Oshawa Ski Club proved that our Czechoslovakian students as well as two of our Montrealers are the ace skiers at O.L.C. in 1940. We had a skating rink this year at the school, which was very convenient, but the trick was to find time to get out long enough to have a good skate. The ice was always in good condition and once you were out there it was grand.

Apparatus work was lustily taken up by many students and enjoyed a great deal.

The Swimming Meet on April 24 was a splashing success. A new system of lighting was tried on two or three events and is expected to be carried further next year. There was keen competition in both the Senior and Junior events. Many students have successfully tried for their Bronze and Silver Medals and probably all received honors.

It has been very rainy as yet but the tennis courts have been used every possible minute. The courts have felt some beautiful drives and serves.

A new game, Tenikoit, was introduced this spring and has already been enjoyed by many.

Our well-schooled horses have been busy with many riders (even the Faculty have taken to the sport). The stable has acquired a new inmate, Sheila, who really ought to be called Mae West. We are all sorry that the May day horse show could not be carried out on account of rain.

Something else that the A. A. sponsored which was not exactly a sport was the Posture Campaign. We had millions of posters, 50 anyway, up all over the school. It really seemed to straighten everyone up at least a little bit.

At the S.C.M. Bazaar the A.A. did remarkably well, thanks to the students and were well able to give a donation to the S.C.M.

And last of all, thank you, members, for your co-operation and enthusiasm in so many respects.

* * *

Florence Blackman (reading from the ancient history book): "And the people rent their garments." What does that mean?

Elinor Mc.: I suppose it means they couldn't afford to buy them.

* * *

Miss Carman (tapping on the board):
Attention, class! I am going to run through this again.

* * *

Miss Toll: Another bite like that and you will leave the table.

Helen Yates: Another bite like that and I will be through.

bury Caesar?"

Ollie Koleff: The undertaker.

* * *

Norma: Does horse-back riding make your head ache?

Betty: No, on the contrary.

A Rhyming Chronicle

September arrives at O. L. C.
Autumn is in the air,
New girls quake upon Main Stairs,
In strange and new despair.

The floors are newly polished,
And the tunics fresh and clean,
Rooms so dark and gloomy
Are remodelled on the scene.

Initiation follows
And we give the kids the ropes,
Teachers cast off dignity
And satisfy our hopes.

Classes soon are organized,
Miss Carman tears her hair,
In an effort to obtain a way
To rob us of a spare.

But time advances onward,
To the Hallowe'en parade,
The concert hall exhibits all,
In merry masquerade.

Field Day brings sore muscles
And we hobble round the school,
With weary joints and ligaments,
Complaining as a rule.

The next event of prominence
Was the Pageant of Christmas time
The Hallelujah Chorus
And the Drama in its prime.

And of course we surely can't forget,
The famous Senior Play,
The secrets that were closely kept,
Until the fatal day.

Miss Taylor wandered all about,
In concentrated haze,
Repeating everybody's lines,
Throughout the awful days.

Then Ricky and Miss Lohead,
Had troubles on the course,
They broke and bruised and shattered limbs
Just falling off a horse.

And Dr. Carcy (pardon me)
Was very sick in bed,
He had it seemed for days and days
A cold "wid in 'is 'ead."

The Snior Dance gave quite a thrill,
Then came the Senior Dinner,
The Easter holidays flew by,
The year was growing thinner.

May Day was very famous,
For Janet was May Queen,
We longed to see her march in grace,
Across the grass so green.

But lo—the wicked weather,
It rained the whole, long day,
So we crowded all within the gym
In dance and sport and play.

And now the year draws to a close,
The tulips brightly bloom,
Exams. we will not mention,
We'll leave them in the gloom.

We'll ne'er forget the sunny halls,
The food, the plays, the weather,
The noise within the dining room,
What fun we had together!

Commencement too in all its glory,
The farewells sad and tender,
The midnight feasts and their results
Our stomachs will remember.

And in the years that are to come,
No matter where we be
We'll always treasure in our hearts
Memories of O. L. C.

H. M.

Every young student of Commerce should be given an opportunity of studying this book before entering the world of business. It is designed to help him create a good impression in his first position—an impression that depends upon something quite apart from a knowledge of shorthand, typewriting and bookkeeping.
